

A letter no one will claim. A town that will not explain.

Ana finds an unclaimed letter at the end of a quiet shift. Its addressee is a man nobody in Puerto Lento will discuss. To learn why, she must follow a name, an empty table, old letters, and a small light on the water.

Ten linked stories return to the same people and places, giving adult A2 learners a narrative thread to follow instead of another disconnected language exercise.

Open the letter. Follow Ana into the night.

NINA MARLO

WHAT'S INSIDE

- 10 linked A2 stories
- Complete English translations
- Questions collected at the back